Deep Skilling-Frequently Asked Questions
(FAQs)

1. What is Deep Skilling in DN 5.0?

Deep Skilling is a comprehensive skill development program that includes various stages of learning and assessment.

2. What is the learning approach for Deep Skilling and how much time should I dedicate to the program daily?

It involves self-paced learning over 7 weeks, with an average of 10-12 hours of learning per week. The program includes stream-specific practice exercises and final assessments (at the end of the 7th week), along with a final technical interview.

3. What are the practice components and are they the same for all streams?

The practice components include hands-on exercises, quizzes/knowledge checks, coding challenges, and SME connects along with self-paced learning. More details can be found in the stream-specific handbook.

4. What will be included in the final assessment and is it the same for all streams?

The final assessment is stream-specific multiple-choice questions covering all the topics of the deep skilling.

5. What are the criteria for becoming eligible for the technical interview?

To become eligible for the technical interview, it is mandatory to complete the Deep Skilling phase and the final assessment.

6. What is the completion percentage required for the hands-on, coding challenges, and other sessions?

Completion of all activities specific to your stream is mandatory, along with 100% attendance for all engagements.

7. What learning opportunities are available for me?

You have access to flexible self-paced learning, expert trainers and Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) for guidance, extensive hands-on practice exercises, quizzes, and coding challenges.

8. Will the connects overlap with my regular college timings?

Learning will be mostly self-paced. In case it's instructor-driven, it will be planned in a way that allows you to manage it with college. This holds true for all other connects during this journey.

9. Is the college/student required to financially invest in the program?

No, neither the college nor the student is required to make any financial contribution to the program. System infrastructure, including a laptop and basic software, will have to be organized by the student or provided by the college.

10. During Deep Skilling, is it mandatory to join the SME trainer sessions and other connects?

Yes, it is mandatory to join all the connects that Cognizant schedules. This helps you follow the right learning path and ensures that your journey is both fulfilling and enriching.

11. What are the expectations from a candidate?

- Take responsibility for your own success.
- Connect sessions will be planned as required and you are expected to attend.
- Get sufficiently equipped to deliver quality work.
- Complete all practice components as per the schedule.

12. Does Cognizant evaluate my performance during the DN 5.0 program?

Yes, performance will be reviewed and evaluated, with the results being communicated to you on a regular basis.

13. What will be the consequence if I drop out midway through the DN 5.0 program?

You will be disqualified from the DN 5.0 program.

14. What if I am not available on the scheduled date of the final assessment? Will it be rescheduled?

It is mandatory to attend the final assessment as per the schedule given to you. There is no option to reschedule or reattempt the assessment.

15. What is the consequence of plagiarism and misconduct during the DN 5.0 program?

Cognizant follows a zero-tolerance policy towards plagiarism and misconduct. Cognizant may, at its sole discretion, revoke the offer of employment if such issues are identified.

16. What will be the mode of communication and where can I get updates regarding the DN 5.0 program?
